

I, CLEO ROBINSON, being of sound mind, will to Judy Miller my rotten sense of humor; to Rosie, my sister, my well read books and brains; and to all my fellow classmates, underclassmen, and faculty I will my ability not to think.

I, CONSTANCE D. ROBINSON, being of strong body and mind hereby will to A. H. my ability to catch on to any dance put before me; to Darlene W. my white gym shorts that she has been longing for; my looks to ???; and to Ella D. I hope she gets what she wants. To V. P. and H. R. plus R. J. and W. C., I hope they make good time; a good farewell to Edison High; and last but never least, I will all my love to D. S. who is sticking it out in Germany.

VALEDICTORIAN

Mary Wong

WINGFIELD AND MILLER

WILL BE

GRADUATE SPEAKERS

Four outstanding seniors of Edison High will make a graduation speech on June 11, 1965. Judith Ann Miller will make a speech entitled 'Yesterday is but a memory; Tomorrow is but a dream'. Her speech is about the inspiration of men of the Tomorrows. Joe Wingfield will make a speech about the success of man in the coming future.

Linda Leong, the saluatorian, will make the salutatory address at the graduation ceremonies. It is a welcoming address. Mary Ann Wong, the valedictorian of Edison High, will give the valedictory address which is the farewell address.

I, IRA WALKER, being of strong mind and small body do hereby will to Mary B. my small body; to D. Burts my beautiful hair and legs; to my sister Audrey my beautiful smile and the ability to get along with people; and to all the inferior underclassmen, the best of luck.

I, FRED WALKER, being of sound mind and body, will all my girls to Andrew Henderson; my loving ability to Fred Hemmitt; and my heart to Joyce Madden and JoAnn Shelton.

I, DOROTHY WHITTEN, will to my enemies the ability to mind their own business.

I, ALICE WILLIAMS, will my brother Moses Williams and my cousin Willie Johnson the ability to stop growing tall and start spreading out. I also will Shirley Momon, Viola Rodgers, and Shirley Boston the ability to get all A's and B's and to all underclassmen the best of luck.

I, LENORA WILLIAMS, will to my sisters Marcene and Patricia my ability to get along with other people. To my cousin Ovonder I will my great sense of humor; to Mary Bowie, my small eyes; my small legs to Idella Smith; and my voice to Dee Phillips.

I, PEARLY MAE WILLIAMS, being of foul mind and deformed body, will my ability to graduate to Theresa Bruner; my athletic ability to Shirley Momon; my eyes to Verdell Johnson; my ability to catch and hold my men to all jiving juniors; my diploma to my loving daughter; and last, but not least, my love to Lawrence Momon.

I, CINDERELLA WOODARD being of sound mind and body, will the following: my ability to stop growing to Sheila; to D. M. all of my love; to Kenneth and Roy, I will Mr. Gonos; and to Rosemary my good for nothing no-locking locker. Also, to all underclassmen, my ability to graduate.

I, CONRAD T. YEVERINO being of sound mind and body hereby will my football shoes to Dan Arcia; my car to Charles Graves; all my James Bond books to Mrs. Rea; and my height, strength, and brains to Mr. Sarantos.

I, DON NEAL, being of confused mind leave to my sister Karen, the ability to try everything that comes "easy;" and to my cousin Ken to think about his hat more often. All my love to Becky

WITTIEST BOY

Alonzo Givens

SALUTATORIAN

Linda Leong

I, ROGER ELIZABETH JONES, being of sound mind and body will my ability to anyone who works in the office to be more accurate and have patience. I also will my ability to all my French classmates not to chew gum while class is being held, and to be on time for class; and last, but not least, all I will my love to W. C. and my help to those who need it the most.

I, DENNIS DEONDRE MAJOR, will to my sons Robert and John the intelligence they will need after I'm gone. To Linda F. I give a more pleasant attitude and happiness. Last, but not least, to Oneater and all of the other swinging girls, I give my heart.

I, MICHAEL VAQUILAR, will to Danny "Jew" Arcia, the smell of dirty socks, the perspiration of the boys' gym, and the empty bottle.