

"COME ALIVE, YOU'RE IN THE PEPSI GENERATION"

I, PAULINE LANE, being of sound mind and body leave my brother John the ability to graduate and to all underclassmen I leave Edison High.

I, WILMA LANEY, of sane mind and body will my loving personality to my grumpy brother Carlos Laney; my man-catching ability and sex appeal to Vivian Turney; my wonderful grades to Calvin Laney; one of my favorite smiling teachers, Mr. Sarantos, to Denis Laney; my extreme height to JoAnn Madden; and all my wonderful "Love" to Richard Madden.

I, JOSEPH HENDERSON, will all my love to Patricia and no one else, my football ability to John Dickson, and my baseball to Paul Lopez.

I, BEN HERNANDEZ, being of sound mind and body, hereby will the following: to Joe Hernandez my good trunks, to my brother David my talent, to my sister Noemi at Irwin my grades, to Tony Guerrero my desk in Mr. Shelly's room to Mario Silva my old torn coveralls, and of course to Patricia L. my love always.

I, HAVIS COLLINS NELSON, being of able body and weak mind, do hereby bequeath the following to these miserable creatures: to Mr. Larry Caldwell my discus throwing ability; to Mr. Larry Garcia a discus ring; and to a real nice coach my many thanks.

I, PATSY PAGGETT, being of sound body and mind, will to Gloria Tatum a free ticket back to San Francisco. To F. D. Davis and Willie Thomas the ability to become good teachers someday, and to my sister Jo fun, fun, fun, at Fresno High next year.

I, RACHEL PEREZ, being of sound mind and body will to Hermie Vasquez the ability to get along with Ricky as I do with Richard. To Patsy Saldade I will my quietness and my eyelashes; I will my ability to paint signs for art service to Terry Lazalde; and last, but not least of all, my love to R. V.

I, JUANITA POE, being a senior on my way to graduation, do hereby declare my last will and testament at Edison. I leave my best wishes for their future happiness in Tigertown to my underclassmen cousins, Daniel, Samuel, and Letitia Marshall. I bid farewell with fond memories to Edison the faculty, and the students.

The Lively Crowd
cheers with Pepsi

I, SANDRA MCDONALD, being of sound mind and healthy body hereby bequeath the following: To Linda Green I will my seat in Mr. Shelly's class; to Patricia Hickmon I will my seat on the fabulous Senior table; and to the remainder of the underclassmen I will to you two very teachers--Mr. Lyne(?) and Mrs. Bue. Take advantage of their brilliance.

I, WAYNE BROWN, will my football shoes to Earl Brown; my ability to play basketball and my advice to never sit close to the coach to Charles Brown; and to the girls at Edison, I leave my heart. Also, Earl Brown is not my brother, but he's a Brown and he'll be around.

I, DELIA GARCIA, being of narrow mind and beautiful shapely hips will my sister Flor Estella my beautiful shape and to all underclassmen, and especially one that broke my heart. "Stop in the Name of Love."

I, IOLA CROCKETT, will to Lenora Austin my ability to stay slim and to Arlena King my height.

I, HAROLD W. CRUISE, being of ingenious mind and sound body hereby will my intelligence to James Dozier; my love to Stella D.; my "A" and "B" average to Robert Irving; and last, but not least, my vocabulary to the Sophomore class.

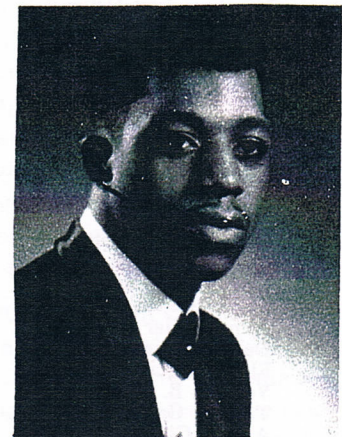

I, ROBERT CRUMP, being of sound mind and body do will to the following people these items: to Carol Major my problems; to T. Smith my love( her little brother's a pain in the neck); my white eyes to my red eyed cousin Marshall; my hands to Janice Malone; my excellent personality to myself; my line to my cousin Howard, who needs it; and to all the girls my regret that I have to leave.

I, LAWRENCE FLORES, will Bobo more brains and the ability to always forget; to Mary Ellen Galvan all the Vodka in all the liquor stores; and last, but not least, I will all my . . . to Rosie G.

I, BARBARA FUENTES, with hollow mind and small body will to the following: to Dale F. my smile; to Lonie C. my personality; to Flor G. my brains, which are already worn out; to Georgia Salinas a years supply of Love Potion No. 9; to my brother my grades, temper, and ability to graduate; and last, but not least, my love to W. F. if you ever need it.

I, ROGER FULBRIGHT, being of fragile body and sinister mind bequeath the following: my soul singing ability to the fellas in choir and madrigals and to that very special girl underclassmen I will my . . . . .

I, RICHARD STERLING MOULTRIE, a senior on my way to graduating will Richard Sterling Moultrie to Vivian Marie Turney and Robert Gridiron to Dina Stevens.
